LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a.) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

(a.) To carry on the business of merchants, traders, and ship-chandlers in all their branches:

(b.) To carry on the business of machinists, foundrymen, ship-builders, and manufacturers in all their branches, and to operate machine-shops, factories, shipyards, service-stations, assembly plants, works and conveniences of every kind and nature:

(c.) Subject to the provisions of the "Engineering Act," to carry on the business of general contractors and engineers in all their branches:

(d.) To manufacture, erect, assemble, repair, rebuild, convert, alter, buy, sell, rent, loan, deal and trade in goods, chattels, and merchandise of every kind and description, including, but without affecting the generality of the foregoing, Diesel engines, gasoline-engines, prime movers of all kinds, engine parts, accessories, tools, hardware, machinery, ship-chandlery, and all types of mechanical devices:

(e.) To carry on the business of brokers, general merchants, wholesalers, retailers, jobbers, exporters and importers, commission and manufacturers' agents, and to buy, sell, deal and trade in merchandise of every kind and nature whatsoever:

(f.) To guarantee the satisfactory operation of any plant, machinery, or equipment manufactured, supplied, sold, loaned, leased, erected, or installed or otherwise dealt with by the Company:

(g.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any contracts or concessions for or in relation to the supply of merchandise or the construction or execution of any works undertaken by the Company:

(h.) To carry on the business of warehousemen and carriers by sea, air, or land:

(i.) To lend money on any terms that may be thought fit, and particularly to persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee and become surety for the performance of any contract, obligation, or undertaking made or to be made by any person, firm, or corporation whatsoever (including directors or shareholders of the Company), and to secure the fulfilment of any contracts or agreements entered into by the Company, and to secure the performance of all such contracts by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property or assets of the Company, including its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, or in any other manner whatsoever; provided that nothing herein contained shall confer on the Company the powers of an insurance company within the meaning of the British Columbia "Insurance Act":

(j.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, hypothecate, mortgage, create liens upon, or otherwise encumber or deal with all or any part of the property or undertaking of the Company or any interest therein, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares (wholly or partly paid up) or debentures in other companies as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon; to promote or assist in promoting any company or companies, joint-stock companies, or societies anonymes for the purpose of taking over, acquiring, or working any property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company, and either in the Dominion of Canada, Province of British Columbia, or elsewhere; to take or otherwise acquire and hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(k.) To undertake or acquire and take over by purchase or otherwise in any way whatsoever all or any part of the business, stock-in-trade, plant, leases, licences, and all other goods and chattels, personal property and real property and assets of any person, firm, or corporation, and of any business whatsoever and wheresoever carried on, or which may at any time be carried on, either subject to the whole or part of the liabilities thereof respectively or otherwise as may be agreed, and in either or any of the above cases, and in the case of any debt or account owing or payable by the Company at any time to any person, firm, or corporation (including any shareholder or director of the Company), and in the case of any liability, obligation, or contract for or in respect of which the Company is or is about to become liable, to pay for, satisfy, or discharge the same either in money or debentures or bonds or shares of the Company, or partly in money and partly in shares and partly in bonds or debentures of the Company: said shares in any or either case to be either partly or fully paid up; such debentures may be secured either by a charge on or a deposit of any part or all of the Company's property of any kind whatsoever, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, or without such charge:

(l.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, issue, re-issue, sell, place, and deal in shares, stock, bonds, debentures, and securities of all kinds, and to give any guarantee or security for the payment of debentures or interest thereon or otherwise in relation thereto:

(m.) To borrow, raise, or secure money (with or without powers of sale or other special conditions) either by a charge on or deposit of any part or all of the Company's property of any kind whatsoever, or without such charge; to draw, make, accept, endorse, issue, execute, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments; and to borrow or raise money on or by bonds or debentures (charged upon all or any part of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital), or acceptances, endorsements, or promissory notes of the Company, and other negotiable instruments, or on or by mortgage or any other form of security:

(n.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any country or place:

(o.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(p.) To distribute any of the Company's property among the members in specie:

(q.) To carry on any other business permitted by the "Companies Act" (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(r.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(s.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

J. W. FORDHAM JOHNSON,
Lieutenant-Governor.

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

BY HIS HONOUR JOHN WILLIAM FORDHAM JOHNSON, LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR OF THE PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

To all to whom these presents shall come—GREETING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS His Excellency Captain the Right Honourable the Earl of Bessborough, Governor-General and Commander in Chief of the Dominion of Canada, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Canada, bearing date at the City of Ottawa, the eighteenth day of July, 1931, has been graciously pleased to appoint me to be, during the will and pleasure of the Governor-General of Canada, Lieutenant-Governor in and over the Province of British Columbia, and has further in and by the said Letters Patent authorized, empowered, and commanded me to do and execute all things that shall belong to the said command and trust, according to the several powers, provisions, and directions granted or appointed me by virtue of the Act of Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the thirtieth year of Her late Majesty's Reign, called and known as "The British North America Act, 1867," and of all other Statutes in that behalf, and of the said Letters Patent, according to such instructions as are thereby given, or which may from time to time be given, to me in respect of the said Province of British Columbia, under the Sign Manual of the Governor-General of the Dominion of Canada or by Order of the Privy Council for Canada, and according to such laws as are or may be in force within the said Province of British Columbia:

NOW, THEREFORE, KNOW YE, that I have thought fit to issue this Proclamation in order to make known my said appointment, and I do also hereby require and command that all and singular His Majesty's Officers and Ministers in the said Province of British Columbia do continue in the execution of their several and respective offices, places, and employments, and that His Majesty's loving subjects and all others whom it may concern do take notice hereof and govern themselves accordingly.

GIVEN under my hand and Seal at Victoria, this first day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, and in the twenty-second year of His Majesty's Reign.
